WHAT'S NEW FEATURED DESIGNER

Art by Art

I have been beading since I was about twelve or thirteen. I had my beginning in the Order of the Arrow, and got into the dancing part so I created a costume, which of course included beadwork. I was fascinated by it. There just seemed to be no end to the projects I could come up with. I off course some how managed to grow up, and my beadwork was left behind, but not forgotten. When I was about forty or so I decided to quit screwing up my life with alcohol. This of course left me with a lot of free time, and somewhere in there I decided to make a dreamcatcher so I ordered a Tandy catalog. When I opened the book it opened to the seed bead page. I traded the addiction of alcohol for the addiction of beadwork. I then proceeded to bead every design I could find in the books I was able to get hold of. It became more, and more clear to me that if I didn't want to keep beading the same designs over, and over again I would have to make my own designs. All this time I had been reading up on Native Americans, and their beliefs. Therefore all my designs have some sort of Native American meaning to me. This includes the subject, and colors that are used. Since I was not born a Native American I can do I can only hope that I do them at least some justice, but I am afraid I fall far short. The techniques I use are Loom, Split-Loom, Appliqués, Three bead drop, lazy-stitch, and Brick. I hope you enjoy my efforts.
